Dear Dick:

I'm enclosing the list of students in my group. Unfortunately, ~~it~~ it does not include the data for two students. I somehow misplaced my original list in the process of getting a late arrival signed up and had to redo it yesterday. But ~~the~~ two students were absent when I circulated the list again. I thought it best to get this in the mail to you today and then call you or your secretary early this next week to supply the missing information.

I am looking forward to our session with you, as always.

Warm regards,
